J. E. Steel and Walter Phillips returned Monday from a two weeks' camping and hunting trip which took them up Rogue river to Crater Lake and back into the wilds. Phillips brought down a fine buck.

The Phoenix public schools have inaugurated the plan of furnishing noon lunches to the school children. They started the new feature last Monday, and one who ate there says the service and the feed are fine. The older girls from the high school do the serving.

Ralph Lowe returned Tuesday for a two weeks' visit in the city after an absence of over a year. He spent the past summer at Walla Walla, Wash., after spending the previous winter in the east. He says it was hotter than blazes in Walla Walla all summer but that business is good up there on account of fine wheat crops.

G. W. Kennard, well known rancher and fruitgrower on the East Main street road a mile from Ashland, and father of Miss Charlotte Kennard, for seven years a popular teacher in the Ashland schools, has traded his property for a farm 30 miles east of Lynchburg, Virginia, in historic Appomattox county. Miss Kennard has tendered her resignation to take effect October 10 and they will leave for their new home next week. Ashland regrets to lose him and his daughter. They are a fine type of people and Miss Kennard is one of the best-like school teachers, among the pupils, that the school board has ever employed.

If you are planning to do any decorating or painting in the near future, you cannot do better than to buy your material now.

PRICES on wallpapers and all decorations are steadily advancing and stocks are getting scarce. We are advised this week that many papers, especially the lower priced goods, will be practically out of the market by Spring and better goods will be much higher in price.

THE paint and oil market is again advancing, and there is hardly a chance of lower prices for months to come. BUY NOW. We have the stock and the lowest prices.

Roberts, attorney, has purchased the home of Clifford Kent, 916 East Main street, and will occupy it. These deals were made through the Beaver Realty agency.

G. W. Trefren has moved his law office from the Pioneer block to the Park hotel property. He has also moved his family to the same property and has rented his North Main street residence to Mr. Gheer, a newcomer. Mr. Trefren has a large interest in the Park hotel property and will operate part of it as a rooming house.

DEPOT DOINGS.

The change in the train schedule and an unusual number of extra freights made last Sunday one of the liveliest days in the local yards.

Albert F. Noth, for six years ticket agent at the Medford station, has been appointed station agent to succeed A. S. Rosenbaum, who was promoted to the position of claim agent with Portland headquarters.

About 45 poles 120 feet long on nine cars were in the Ashland yards Monday. They were loaded in three lots, each lot of about 15 requiring three cars on account of the great length.

The new train, No. 17, does not put an extra crew on the north end list because it returns as the second section of No. 16, for which a crew was formerly deadheaded to Ashland from Roseburg.

Ten thousand sheep from Baker and Bend were shipped through Ashland to Miller & Lux of San Francisco, Monday. Twenty-two cars were loaded out of Ashland yards Monday morning, in charge of E. O. Day of San Francisco, and the remainder of the lot went south from here Tuesday. The sheep are loaded in double-deck cars with 292 to each car. They came by rail around through Portland.

The restaurants down near the depot feel the change in train schedules about as much as anyone not directly connected with the railroad. From 5 o'clock until 3 in the morning trains arrive in flocks and it keeps the restaurant help busy filling up the hungry crews.

Announcement.

I wish to announce to the voters of Ashland that I am a candidate for the office of City Recorder.

At the time I came west I was serving a term in a capacity similar to our office of recorder.

If elected I expect to look after the city's interest in every particular. I solicit your support.

Very truly yours,
